Following a successful first edition, The Rooms Art Fair returns from 4 to 7 June 2026 at Mix Brussels and unveils the first elements of its programme.

Conceived as a human-scale fair, The Rooms offers a distinctive format in which galleries and dealers take over hotel rooms, creating a more direct, fluid, and intimate visitor experience.

For this second edition, around forty exhibitors will be brought together, with an increased presence of international galleries. A selection of Belgian and international galleries, combining emerging and established scenes.

This year's programme is further enriched by new collaborations. The Musée de la Photographie de Charleroi will take over a dedicated room, presenting a selection of works from its collection.

A room will also be designed by Belgian designer Lionel Jadot, based on a selection of works presented by the exhibitors, extending the dialogue between art and interior architecture.

Alongside the presentations, a series of talks will be organised in partnership with Puilaetco, focusing on three themes:

Collecting with confidence: expertise, network and insurance

Art and the legal aspects of collecting

Collecting in the 21st century: perspectives and shared insights

At the crossroads of ancient, modern and contemporary art, The Rooms thus asserts an open positioning, encouraging dialogue and discovery across different practices and generations of collectors.

A private preview (by invitation only) will take place on Thursday 4 June. The fair will then be open to the public from Friday 5 to Sunday 7 June 2026.
