La Mamounia's Autumn Culinary Series

Emmanuel Renaut, Olivier Nasti and Pierre Hermé come together on 6, 7 and 8 October in the gardens of La Mamounia

On 6, 7 and 8 October 2026, La Mamounia will welcome Emmanuel Renaut and Olivier Nasti for three exceptional dinners in the heart of its gardens. Pierre Hermé will create the dessert for each evening.

In autumn, the gardens of La Mamounia become the setting for a series of unique culinary encounters. For three evenings only, Emmanuel Renaut and Olivier Nasti will bring their respective culinary worlds together in Marrakech, with menus specially created for the occasion.

On 6 October, Emmanuel Renaut will open the series. A three-Michelin-starred chef and Meilleur Ouvrier de France, he will present a cuisine deeply rooted in exceptional produce and inspired by his region.

On 7 October, he will be joined by Olivier Nasti for a four-hands dinner, bringing together two distinct sensibilities and expressions of French gastronomy.

On 8 October, Olivier Nasti will host the third evening. A two-Michelin-starred chef and Meilleur Ouvrier de France, he will unveil a menu that reflects his culinary identity, precise, generous and deeply inspired by nature.

For each of the three evenings, Pierre Hermé will create the dessert, bringing his signature to this exclusive culinary series.

Through these special dinners, La Mamounia continues to celebrate its connection with leading names in gastronomy, creating three experiences specially designed for Marrakech, set in the iconic surroundings of its gardens.
